Class Poem

We the class of 48
Have loafed all the way,
And we hope to graduate
In the month of May.

We will begin with Kenny
The youngest as you know,
He makes friends with many
Where ever he may go.

Emogene is a quiet person
Her name is on the honor role,
And just in case you haven't heard
To be a teacher is her goal.

A feeling of sadness and sorrow
Was seldom in our room,
As long as we had Delores R.
To shoo away the gloom.

The doll of the Senior class
To Irene the honor we give,
Though she was late or absent each day
Still in our hearts she lives.

Marvin who drove a Chev.
Came to school each day,
And every night at four
He would go the other way.

Dorothy is an Indian girl
Her hair is black as jet,
She comes to school each time she can
She wouldn't miss on a bet.

An Oldsmobile is seldom seen
Upon the school ground,
But if by chance it does appear
Bonny is somewhere around.

Glenard is the last
Homer's pet is he,
He is seldom seen places
Where he ought to be.

So good-by to good old Haigler High
We've had our share of fun,
We don't regret the time we've spent
But now we are glad its done.

By Kenny & Bonny

Class Will

We the Senior class of 1948 of Haigler High School, of Haigler, Nebraska, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare, this our last will and testament in manner and form as follows:

We, the Seniors, bequeath to the Juniors the right to get out of school in any manner or form, and the last row of seats in the assembly and class rooms.

Marvin Beeson wills his right to say "I don't know" to his sister Kathryn, and his ability to play basketball to Donnie Brown. His school warmup jacket he wills back to the school.

Kenneth Potthoff wills his ability to answer questions to Reva Wolfe, his height to Duane Christensen and his cowboy boots to Mr. Jones. He wills his ability to drive a car to JoAnn Adams.

Delores Rathbun wills her ability to get along with Mr. Jones to Charles Childers, her back seat in the study hall to Loren Bier and her flirting to Muriel Douglass.

Emogene Wall wills her privilege to drive the new Plymouth to school, to her sister Virginia, and her wise cracks to Eugene Glendenning. Also her privilege of going home during school time to Dorothy Brown.

Dorothy Smith wills her punctuality in getting to school on time to Dorothy Spears, her ability to play hookey and not get caught to Phyllis Potthoff, and her "maybe" to Reva Wolfe.

Irene Keller wills her privilege to stay home from school to Conrad Stahly, and her excuses to Rodney White. She also wills her charm to the Freshman girls.

Bonny Perry wills his ability to miss School often to Kathleen Havlik and his Merry Oldsmobile to his friend Charles Childers.

Glenard Christensen wills his good times with Homer to Dale Zaege and his way with girls to Marvin Kamla.

Class Prophecy

Several years have passed since the senior class of '48 graduated. Unlike most classes we have never lost track of our former classmates, and we are all together again at the time set for our class reunion.

It is now 1958, and we are all gathering at Haigler High School Gymnasium. It seems that most of us have been quite successful in our work.

Well, Well, look who's here! Glenard Christensen, the boy who could get along with the teachers. He tells us he is happily married and has a family of three. He has taken up the occupation of ranching in the sandhills.

Emogene Wall is here; well her name used to be Wall Emogene says, "I'm happily married with Glenn! They have a nice family of five, four girls and one boy. Emogene said she was going to be a school teacher all her life, but it looks like things changed to Glenn's way once."

I'll just step outside for a bit and get a breath of fresh air. My goodness, I wonder whose old car that is coming up here. It looks like someone I used to know. And it is too, it's Marvin Beeson. Marvin tells me he is a mechanic and owns his own garage with several mechanics working for him. Come on Marvin, let's go back in the Gymnasium and meet some of the other class members.

The next senior we meet is Dorothy Smith. She tells us that she worked in a Doctor's office for three months after school was out. One week later she was employed in another doctor's office. Here she remained until she was married. Two months after Dorothy was married she decided to take up secretarial work again until they could find a cheaper place to live. She has quit working for others now and is living at home with her husband and children. She tells us she is very happy.

At the front of the gymnasium I find Delores Rathbun Well, anyway it was Rathbun. Delores' husband says she worked for him exactly one month before they were engaged to be married. Now they have two children and Delores plays Robin Hood with them like she used to with me in school.

Well, Well, here's Irene, the doll of the Seniors and boy, is she a doll now! It looks like she married a man that has a lot of that stuff they call money. Her husband looks tonight like the last rose of the summer because I think he is a little tired, but Irene is just as peppy as ever, even if she is the mother of a girl and a boy, both a picture of her.

As I go on through the Gym, I come upon another one time senior, Bonny Perry. He tells me that when school was out he joined the navy for a while, but now he is taking up ranching and is making a lot of money. He also tells me that he is as yet unmarried but has prospects.

Now to tell the story of my life, from graduation up to date. I have been taking up ranching on a large scale, but the government is getting most of the profits for income tax, so I guess I would be better off broke.

CLASS HISTORY

In the forty-fourth year of the twentieth century, one of the best freshman classes in the history of the Haigler High School, walked in the doors to spend four pleasant years with Mr. Jones as their superintendent.

The members of this class were, Esther Bartholoma, Shirley Andres, Kenneth Bartholoma, Glenard Christensen, Irene Keller, JoAnn King, Milton King, Delores Rathbun, Phyllis Mendenhall, Jacob Samler, Lila Stevens, Max Wall, Emogene Wall, Kenneth Potthoff, and Dorothy Smith.

Our teachers were: Mrs. Charles Roach, Mrs. Thelma Polen-Principal, and Mr. William R. Jones-Supt.

Our class was one of the luckier ones, as we weren't initiated, that is we weren't all initiated. Glenard was picked by the upper classmen for a private initiation and was seated on the fountain.

Kenneth Bartholoma and Max Wall had dropped out by the end of the first semester. During our freshman year, many parties, love affairs and other school activities had passed and all was behind us.

In September of 1945, we started back to school as Sophomores. JoAnn King, Milton King and Lila Stevens had moved during the summer.

Joy Smock started with us that year and Evan Samples joined us at the end of the first six weeks. Our teachers were: Mr. Robert Jeffries, Mrs. Carl Polen--Principal, and Mr. Jones-Superintendent. For some unknown reason, our class was thought of as being one of the best-acting classes, according to our teachers, during both our freshman and Sophomore years.

Marvin Beeson, Bonny Perry, and Hughie Wall joined our class at the beginning of our Junior year. One of the highlights of the year was the ordering of our class rings, from Josten's. The rings were and still are our pride and joy. They had the ruby sets, which seemed to set them off from the rings of previous classes. We presented our Junior play "Margery is Eighteen" on December 18, 1946, after which our leading lady, Joy Smock quit school to take the leading part in her own home as a housewife. Our Junior and Senior banquet was given on Thursday evening, April 24, 1947. The theme was Spanish and everything was made to resemble a Spanish patio. When the banquet was over the Junior and Senior classes went to a dance in Benkelman.

When our class came back as seniors, in September, 1947, a number of our classmates were missing. Shirley Andres, Esther Bartholoma, Jacob Samier, and Evan Samples had arranged to attend other schools. This left Glenard Christensen, Marvin Beeson, Irene Keller, Bonny Perry, Kenneth Potthoff, DeLores Rathbun, Dorothy Smith, and Emogene Wall as members of the senior class of 1948. Mr. Brooks, of the Brooks Studios in McCook, took the senior pictures of both the Laird and the Haigler classes.

As this is written there are several events to come before our school days at Haigler are over. The Junior Senior banquet will be given on April 14. Baccalaureate services will be given on May 16, 1948 and Commencement on May 19, 1948. Of course there will be sneak day too but only Seniors can know when that will be.

At any rate we will soon be through with our schooling in Haigler. Some will go on to institutions of higher learning, others will go from here directly into their life work, but regardless of where we are we will always remember our days at Haigler High School.

JUNIORS

JUNIOR PLAY

The Juniors presented "Something Old, Something New" by John Hershey on February 27, 1948.

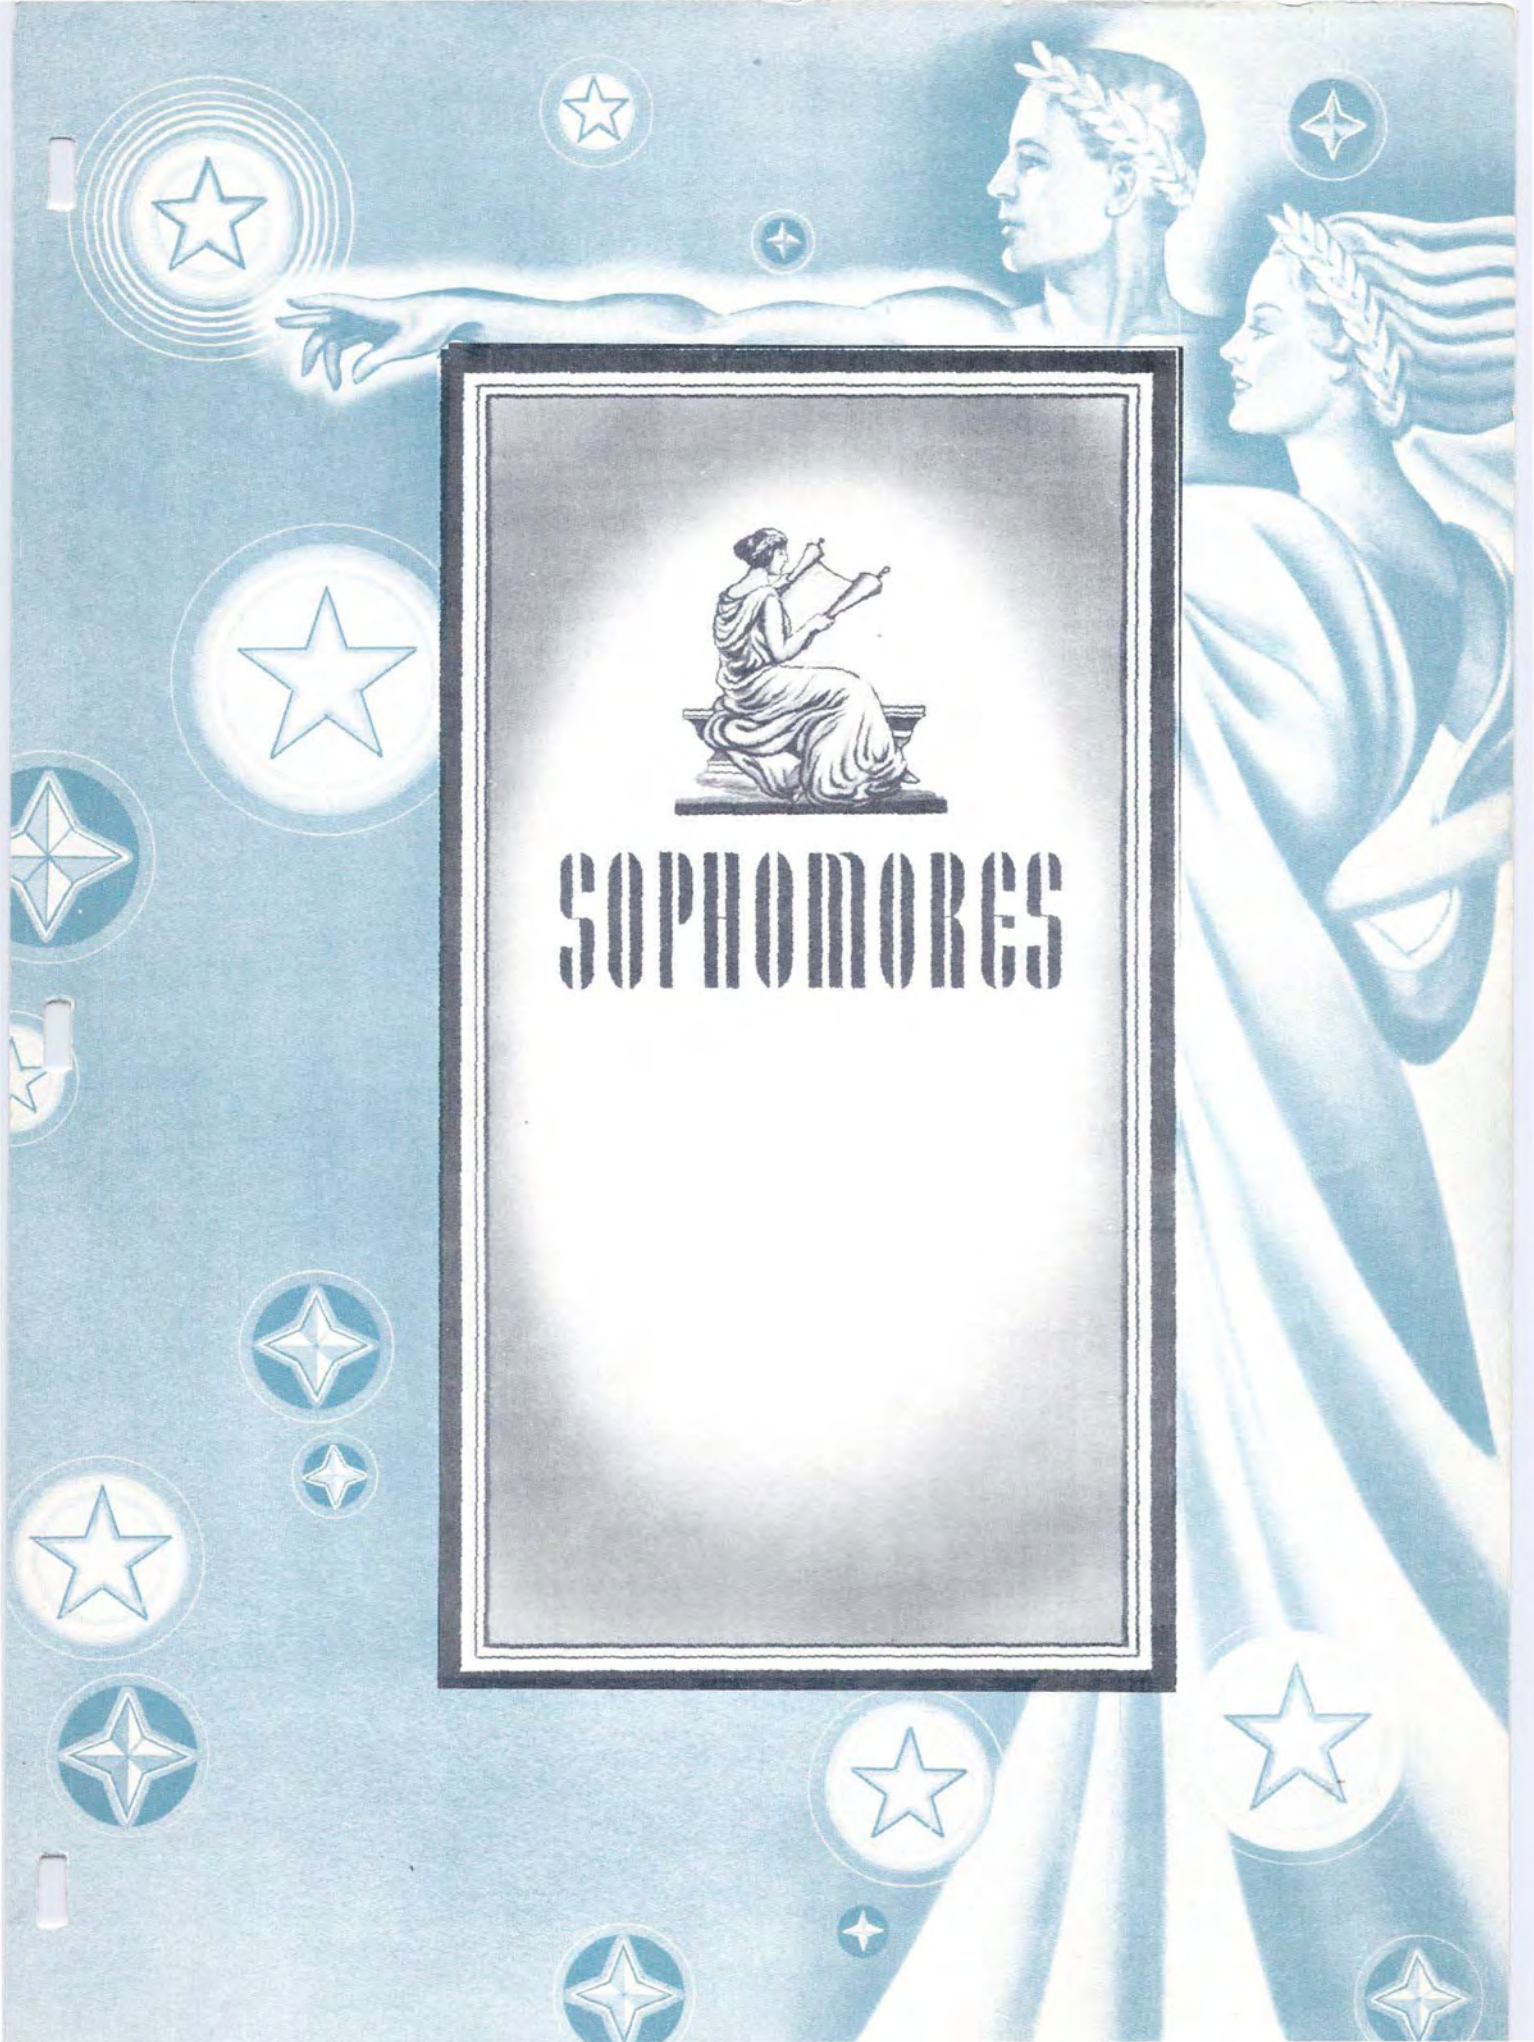

The play is an amusing comedy which deals with modern problems concerning the younger generation.

Mrs. Maude Carroll, (Muriel Douglass) left a widow years before the play opens, has striven, successfully, to raise her family in the "modern manner" -her family consists of Sheila (Naoma Brunick) sixteen, Johnnie (Charles Childers) seventeen and Verna, (Dorothy Spears) nineteen. Gram (Shirley Wall) Mrs. Carroll's mother, is a crotchety old lady who also makes her home with her daughter.

Mrs. Carroll is the proprietor of a thriving little dress shop known as "Maison Carroll". A chance comes to expand the business and she goes to New York for a loan. Sheila and Johnnie in their modern way do a little kicking over the traces. Sheila, who has been writing a poetic novel now decides to become a business woman. She has several ideas for the improvement of "Maison Carroll". Then Johnnie goes to work on Duncan James, (Conrad Stahly) who is sister Verna's new suitor and a stranger in town.---- Johnnie and his friend "Boop" Simmons (Eugene Glendenning) are detective story fans, who know all about crime and criminals, so, when a flood of counterfeit money deluges the town, they pounce on Duncan James as the likeliest suspect. They bring about his arrest and some of the bills are found on his person so just as the amateur detectives are congratulating themselves they discover that Duncan is no crook, but the representative of a company selling Paris frocks. Everything comes out all right in the end. Sheila's fashion show is a success. Duncan decides to buy a partnership in the "Maison Carroll", marry Verna and settle down for a life in Harrisville.

Others in the play were; Flossie, a housemaid (Dorothy Brown), Dutch Hasenflug, a policeman (Lee Campbell), Jeanette Bissell, Mrs. Carroll's assistant (Kathryn Beeson), Rollie Hawkins, a lawyer (Rodney White), Clara Martin, a friend (Joann Adams), Hannah Thorpe, another friend, (Danilene McCoy), and Georgie Bissell, also a friend (Ellen Tracy).-----

Due to the mumps, Duane Christensen and Junior Martin were unable to give their parts. Rodney White substituted for Duane.-----

Freshman Notes

The Freshmen were initiated on Friday, September 12, It was lots of fun. The girls wore 13 pigtailed, all tied with the traditional freshman color. No makeup, slacks rolled to their knees, blouses wrong side out and anklets of different colors. The boys wore long black stockings held up by green ribbon garters—a green ribbon in their hair and shirts inside out. That night they were given a party by the upper classmen and then were full fledged high school students.

Near the end of the school year the ninth grade geography class went on a trip to the Benkelman airport. The class was shown the airport by Happy Kappington. Mrs Marie Kamla took the class in her truck.
