DEDICATION

The Senior Class of 1950 dedicates this annual to John Zweygardt the caretaker of our high school. John was born October 12, 1886, in South Russia and came to the United States with his parents in 1901. They settled in the vicinity of St. Francis, Kansas. John's family consists of his wife Katherina, and four children namely: Irene, Gertie, Rudy, and Reinhold who died in 1928.

He first started working here at our Alma Mater June 1, 1944, and worked for one year. From 1945 and 1946 Mr. Williams was here. John returned in 1946 and has been here to see our 1950 graduation. From 1946 to 1950 John has been a friend to us seniors and has listened to our troubles and put up with our mischievous deeds. We the seniors salute to this man and whenever we think of our Alma Mater we will remember John.

CLASS HISTORY

In the six and fortieth year of the twentieth century there entered into the Land of Learning nine seekers after Knowledge. Marvin Kamla, Reva Wolfe, Rodney White, Dale Zuege, Phyllis Potthoff, LeRoy Rathbun and Delores Martin.

All of us were timid and quiet for about the first few weeks. We survived the usual initiation party for the freshmen. The initiation consisted of games and the Freshmen had to eat worms and sand (macaroni and corn meal) and go through the belt line. The dress for the boys was a pair of their dad's pants and his shirt. The girls had to wear one of their mother's dresses and have their hair tied in a knot on top of their head. The teachers for that year were Mr. Jones, Mr. Samples and Mrs. Roach.

At the beginning of our Sophomore year we gained one student Virgil Schwartz. He was with us until the last six weeks when he moved to Vona, Colo. On the hay rack ride we went to Horse Creek. We roasted weiners and explored an old house. We had a Leap Year party and the girls invited the boys. They had to make a corsage out of fruit. At the party we danced to a record player. The boys and their escorts were Loren Bied--Dorothy Spears; David Bush--JoAnn Adams; LeRoy Rathbun--Virginia Wall; Marvin Kamla--Dorothy Brown; Rodney White--Delores Martin; Glenard Christensen--Phyllis Potthoff. On the last day of school we went to Horse Creek for our picnic. The teachers for that year were Mr. Jones, Mr. Clements, and Mrs. Whitney.

At the beginning of our Junior year we gained two students Bonita Brown from Yuma and Merle Friesen from Madrid. Not many eventful things happened that year. We went on a hay rack ride north of town and had an all school party. We put on the play "Along Came Charlie". Town talk said it was the best play put on at the Haigler High School for a number of years. We also put on the Junior-senior Semi-formal banquet. After the dinner we danced to the music of the Melody Rustlers. The teachers for that year were Mr. and Mrs. Horner and Mr. Rowley.

During our Senior year we had an all school party and a hay rack ride. This year we lost five pupils. One dropped school and one went to Michigan. They were Dale Zuege and Merle Friesen. Three girls got married- Bonita Brown, Reva Wolfe and Delores Martin. We gained one student when Charles Childers joined us the beginning of the semester. The teachers for that year were Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Horner and Mr. Swallow.

There was a play put on by the whole school in which some of the Seniors took part. The play was to raise funds for the electric scoreboard and basketball suits.

Baccalaureate service were held Sunday May 14, 1950 and commencement was May 18, 1950.

CLASS POEM

We the class of 50
Have enjoyed our short stay,
Although we do not regret,
We'll soon be on our way.

Marvin is a bashful boy,
With hair of golden hue,
If you look at him just right,
He's sure to smile at you.

Phyllis the youngest of our class,
And the only girl you know,
What are her plans for the future
Is something nobody knows.

Loren is the clever type,
So ornery night and day,
We wonder how his bright remarks
Can drive our blues away.

LeRoy so full of fun
Is a kid you'd like to meet,
As for any type of sports
He simply can't be beat.

Rodney, an ambitious lad,
A friend of everyone
He's glad school days are almost over
Although they have been fun.

A feeling of sadness and sorrow
Is never in our classroom,
As long as there is David Bush,
To take away the gloom,

Charlie, a new member of our class
Is here for just a short stay,
If he always strives to study hard,
He's sure to reach his goal someday.

Good-bye to good old Haigler High
We've had our share of fun,
We don't regret the time we've spent,
But now we are glad its done.

CLASS PROPHECY

Here it is 1960. I have been in the Navy a long time. This is a red-letter day as I am to have two weeks leave to go back to the good old town of Haigler. Maybe I will see some of my classmates when I get there.

I am now at the airport in San Francisco, Dalifornia waiting for the next rocket for Denver.

It will be an hour before I leave so I might as well look around a little. I think I will get a book to read on the rocket. Look who is selling books, Phyllis Potthoff. She said has been working here for about five years. Well, well, look who is coming up. None other than David Bush. He is a scientist now. He said "A Flying Saucer had crashed near here and came out to see what the trouble was."

I had to tell Phyllis and David good-bye because LeRoy Rathbun was ready to take off with the rocket on his way to Denver. He said he had been flying for about four years. Before he flew rockets he was a dodger of a flying saucer. He didn't like saucer dodgering so he left his wife and started flying rockets.

It is time to get off at the Denver airport so LeRoy and I had to leave each other. It was a pleasure to see LeRoy again because we used to fly around in cars when we were still back in the good old days of 1950.

I am in a hurry to get home so I am going straight to the Railroad Depot to get a train for Haigler. Well, there is Charlie Childers selling tickets at the Burlington Ticket window. It is train time so we do not have time to visit.

When I got on the train and was comfortable seated I saw a big husky man walking down the platform heading for the same car I was on. This figure looked familiar. When he entered the car I knew it was Marvin Kamla. He was returning to his cattle ranch north of Haigler after showing his prize cattle at the stock show. He said he was married and had five boys and three girls.

We were so busy talking over our school days we were in Haigler before we knew it. We both got off of the train and walked up town to get a cup of coffee. While we were in the cafe Rodney White walked in. He said he just returned from college and would be home for a couple of weeks before starting his career as a Civil Engineer.

My leave is up all to soon but it is one that I will not forget as I met all of my class-mates again.

"JUST DUCKY"

The two teen-age girls involved present a big problem. Papa Maxwell is elected the new head of the citizen's committee and is very elated over the whole deal. But the two girls have decided to write a letter to Vester Blayne's love lorn column, and they choose this day to do it. Of course they don't have a problem but they are very adept at inventing one. They were very disappointed when it wasn't published only to come home later to find that Miss Blayne had come to Mrs. Maxwell personally to help her straighten out the mis-up. So when they entered for the third time to hear Mr. Maxwell addressing a man as Marshall, they are sure that Marshall has come for Betty Lou and they decided the only thing left for them to do is to plead insanity, and of course the more the merrier, so when the members of the citizen's committee came to see Mr. Maxwell, Betty Lou, Wilbur, and Bernadine and Hercules convinced them that the two children, as well as Mr. Maxwell himself are nuts. Of course, things all have a happy ending when the truth comes out, but until then it is a complete free for all with all the trimmings.

The Sophomores gave the Seniors a party January 9, 1950. They were planning on an ice skating party, but the weather men mixed the days up and the ice was a week late.

The Seniors did, however, have a good time in the gymnasium. They enjoyed the treasure hunt and numerous other games that kept everyone trying to keep their breath. Sandwiches and hot chocolate with marshmallows floating in it tasted very good at the close of the cold night.

The Freshmen were initiated on Sept. 13, 1949. They were told by the Seniors that they had to come dressed in the following apparrell:

Boys: Jeans rolled up to their knees; sunbonnett and shirt turned wrong side out. Also the upper classmen were to put their Make-up on.

Girls: Long dress complete with bustle, hair in an up-sweep with heavy make-up also one high-heeled and one low-heeled shoe.

As it happened there was a National Assembly Program and the Seniors gave them 12 minutes notice to have a poem ready to give in front of the grade and high school students. All cooperated very nicely and we heard some cute poems.

In the evening a party was given in honor of the Freshmen. We all had a good time and the freshmen certainly knew they had been initiated.
