SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year nineteen hundred and fifty-three, twenty-one green freshmen entered Haigler High School. They were Phil Dexter, Edward Van Horn, Robert Brunswig, Dave Walter, Dick Stasser, Richard Bannister, Kenneth Vanderford, Paul Freehling, Delford Trembly, Jim Sharp, Dallas Adams, Barbara Evans, Myrna Oster, Claudine Wiley, Helen Zuege, Rae Wheaton, Nancy Mahon, Kathryn Stute, Betty Walter, Kay Cline, and Shirley Rathbun.

Our teachers the first year were Mr. and Mrs. George Sanner, and Dale Reckard.

At the beginning of our sophomore year Kay Cline was not with us but we gained Betty Nikiel.

We sponsored an all school party that year at the roller skating rink at Wray, Colorado.

During that year our teachers were Mr. Catlett, Mr. Everett, Mr. Carter, Miss Johnson, and Mr. Blackwill.

During our junior year Shirley Rathbun moved to North Platte, Bob Brunswig, moved to Ogallala, and Helen Zuege got married. Ruby Blankenship came to school during the first semester. In November we gave our class play, "Finders Creepers". In April we gave a banquet for the seniors. Our theme was "Deep in the Jungle". After the banquet a prom was held in the Gymnasium with music by Bob Murphy and his Orchestra.

Our teachers during this year were the same as in our sophomore year.

This year, our senior year, our class has a total of eighteen students. Our teachers are Mr. Carter, Miss Ada Johnson, Miss Laura Johnson, Mr. Everett, and Mrs. Daniels

We gave a class play, "Meet My Wives", and sponsored a few parties. The highlight of the year was our "Senior Sneak" which was a lot of fun for everyone.

Baccalaureate services were held on May 19, 1957, and Commencement was held on May 22, 1957.

Class Motto: Knowledge is the Passport of Life.

Class Flower: Pink Rose.

Class Color: Old Rose and Silver.

Class Sponsor: Mr. Everett.

CLASS POEM

This year we're rather large,
With eighteen in our class;
And all of us are brilliant kids,
From the first one to the last.

Barbara's not the fickle type,
She's only true to one;
But that doesn't stop her
From having lots of fun.

Claudine is quite the doll
With a boy-friend every where;
And if she loses one,
She doesn't seem to care.

Betty Nikiel is the quiet one
With very little to say;
But after listening to the other girls,
We're glad she is that way.

Delford is the studious type,
Always with a book on hand;
And if he keeps the hard work up,
A job he's sure to land.

Butch gets in his Ford,
And over the hillsides he goes;
But what he does and where goes,
Only Kathryn knows.

Nancy is our little cutie
With her pretty smile;
Boys come from far and wide,
Just to look at her awhile.

Myrna thinks she's boy-proof,
But that's a big fat lie;
Rather than give one up,
She would rather die.

Dallas has a cheery smile,
When you meet him anywhere;
We don't know if he's happy,
Or just having lots of fun.

Rae has one ambition,
That's to be a bride;
So when Norvin's home again,
You'll find her by his side.

When it comes to brains,
Kathryn's first in line,
And to prove that she's so smart,
She's talking all the time.

Jim's going to be a rancher,
He's always been that way;
And after he gets through here,
He'll go back to the ranch to stay.

Phil always has a joke,
And he's quite a card;
Always doing something,
But never studies hard.

The girls never bothered Kenny,
Nor do they get him down;
But when you see Kenny,
You know there's girls around.

Dave is a good old chap,
He's always lots of fun.
But when it comes to girls,
He's always on the run.

Dick Stasser is a mathematician
At that he's quite a whiz;
And when it comes to other subjects,
He's as good as there is.

First in mischief of the class,
As we all agree;
Threw a compass through the glass,
No one else but Paul, you see.

Now for the closing lines,
We saved that Bannister man:
The youngest, the tallest; therefore:
The end of the Senior clan.

CLASS

WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1957, ready to leave Haigler High School, being physically fit, of sound mind, and free from duress, do hereby declare this our last will and testament, not to be revoked.

To our loyal faculty we leave our sympathy, as we know they will think of us often as fond memories.

To the most deserving Juniors, we leave our home room; we feel they can keep "Old Abe" in as good shape as we have.

The following are the individual bequeaths left to underclassmen.

I, Dick Stasser, will my mathematical mind to Karen Zuege.

I, Myrna, will my fingernail growing ability with the help of the little pink pills to my sister Margaret.

I, Jim, will my build to John Schwartz. May he WOW the women as I have.

I, Rae, bequeath upon Gwen Dexter, my ability to remain true to one, even though there are many miles between us.

I, Delford, leave to Calvin Freehling, my ability to get along with all my teachers.

I, Betty Walter, will my ability to walk out of English class to anyone who is lucky enough to get away with it.

I, Butch, will my dark curly hair to Pat Wheaton. May she appreciate it as much as I have.

I, Claudine, bestow upon LaNeta Collicott, my careful driving habits. Also my high school sweethearts to any one who wants them.

I, Phil, will my tardiness to Eugene Schwartz. Also my special knack of throwing my shoulder out of place to Stan Carlock.

I, Nancy, leave my long hair to Doris Sims and my innocent look to anyone who needs it.

I, Kenneth, will my ping-pong abilities to Kenneth Stute and may he win more games than I.

I, Kathryn, leave my height to Colleen Hoover and my good grades without strain to Shirley Walter.

I, Paul, leave my artistic abilities to Dale Cline so he may better illustrate his drawings.

I, Dallas, just leave.

I, Betty Nikiel, bequeath my quiet ways to Judy Stute, and my good manners to all underclassmen.

I, David Walter, leave my angelic cover-up way to Dick Hoover.

I, Barbara, will my heartless feelings to Miss Ada and my ability to finally graduate to all underclassmen.

I, Dick Bannister, leave my ability to act, sing, and dance to Barby Neville and my most unusual spelling traits to Sandra Haskell.

Signed and sealed on this 22nd day of May, 1957.

SPECIAL FEATURE

The Class of 1957 has fulfilled their promise to meet again ten years from the day of their graduation, May 18, 1967.

The reunion was held in the gymnasium with every member present. In the evening they had a large banquet at which time every member of the class reported his achievements in the last ten years. The reports are as follows:

Butch Van Horn is raising registered herefords at his huge thirty square mile ranch in Montana. At the last count he had 2,500 cattle. His vacations are spent in Las Vegas, gambling and flirting with the beautiful girls. By this we know he is still single.

Betty Walter, Teacher's College graduate, is teaching music in Alaska. She married her old high school flame and they have two small children. She says she really enjoys the cold weather in Alaska.

Jim Sharp, cattle rancher from Cherry County, Nebraska, is looking for a wife, so look out girls.

Myrna Oster graduated from King's College with a degree in Mental Therapy. She resides at Miami, Florida, with her husband and two year old twin boys. She is employed by the Miami Veteran's Hospital.

Delford Trembly, college graduate and chemistry teacher, as we all know was the first man to reach absolute zero. Although he didn't report it, we know he uses the money for philanthropic purposes.

Nancy Mahon entered the Belville Hospital at Chicago for surgery. She ended up marrying the doctor. They have been happily married for 5 years.

Dave Walter, owner of a large ranch ten miles north of Haigler, is proud to say he raises the best cattle in this part of the State.

Claudine Wiley graduated from McCook College after which she married her old boyfriend. They have three red-headed children and live on a ranch near Haigler.

Philip Dexter joined the Navy after our graduation and has made this his career. Just recently he was promoted to a Chief Petty Officer.

Barbara Evans attended one year of college and began working as a receptionist. She is married and lives in China near the Yellow River.

Rae Wheaton, married soon after our graduation gave up her career to become a housewife. During her spare time she polishes fingernails at the Beauty Saloon in St. Francis.

Dallas Adams joined the Navy but had some difficulty in following orders. He is now a paint stirrer in the Acme Paint Company.

Paul Freehling, M. D., graduate of the University of Colorado's Medical School is employed as a surgeon in a nearby hospital and married to an attractive nurse.

Dick Stasser graduated from the University of Nebraska, majoring in civil engineering. He resides in Lincoln with his recent bride.

Kathryn Stute attended two years of college. During her summer vacation she met an Indian and married him a year later. He is a senator from Texas and they live in Washington D.C.

Kenneth Vanderford entered the Navy after graduation and after four years decided to make it his career. He has been around the world once and his next assignment is Paris.

Betty Nikiel became a beauty operator and has opened her beauty parlor in Haigler. At the class reunion she announced her recent engagement to a prominent businessman.

The Junior Class Play, a three-act farce comedy entitled "Let Me Out of Here" was presented on December 5 and 6. The plot of the play concerns the problems to two young girls who have come to the city to work. Eve Boyd has a wealthy aunt who wants her to marry Gifford Morton, an eccentric poet. Eve wants to be independent and has led her aunt to believe she is attending an exclusive girls' school instead of working. But she suddenly learns that Aunt Angela and Gifford are coming to visit. While she is trying to find someone to pretend to be her teacher, Bona's brother and a friend arrive to take care of some business. While waiting for the girls to return home, Victor tears his trousers, and since it is a holiday there is no way to get them mended. Many hilarious situations develop while he is trying in vain to find a pair of useable trousers to complete his business deal. In the meantime, the girls persuade Bona's brother to play the part of Eve's teacher. He reluctantly consents and at a most critical moment loses the pin holding his skirt and the whole plot is exposed. The entire cast gets mixed up in the tangle, which gets worse and worse--but all ends happily in a most amusing way.

Because of the small number in the Junior Class, it was necessary to borrow four underclassmen to fill some parts in the play. The play was directed by Mrs. Daniels and the cast included the following:

Carol O'Dell
Doris Sims
John Corder
Stanley Carlock
John Schwartz

*LaNeta Collicott
*Patty Wheaton
*Don Trembly
*Gene Mahon
Barbie Neville

The first season of 8-man Football found the Eagles limited to two wins, while loosing five.

This does not tell the complete story however. In each game Haigler was definitely in contention till the final whistle.

Playing schools such as Benkelman, Culbertson provided the team with tough competition.

Several injuries and sickness kept Haigler far from full strength all season.

The Haigler Cagers have completed the best season in the past three years.

Led by John Corder and Dick Bannister the Eagles were a good floor club but were handicapped by lack of bench strength and diversified scoring.

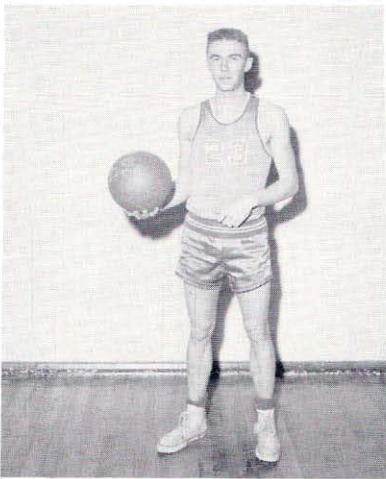

Setting the scoring pace for the Eagles in "57" was John Corder with 239 points. Dick Bannister was second in scoring 171 and led the re-bound departmen with 157.

The Haigler grade school, lacking height and experience, found the season rough. Several games, however, proved the Haigler graders could do everything but score more points than the opponent. Next year, with more experience, we expect better results.

This is the first year for some time that we have had both girls' and boys' choruses at H. H. S. We have twelve girls enrolled in Girls' Chorus, and are doing three-part numbers. Six boys are enrolled and are learning to sing two-part, and four-part harmony. The combined Mixed Chorus of eighteen members have been singing four-part harmony and have sung at the local churches on several occasions. Since we have only two days a week for all three groups, the work done in each group is of necessity limited by time.

We are planning to attend the Yuma-Washington County Music Festival in Eckley, the Three-Valley Music Festival at Palisade, and the District Music Festival in Holdredge.

The chorus is under the direction of Mrs. Rex Daniels, and the accompanist for all the groups is Judy Stute. Members of the chorus are as follows: FIRST SOPRANO: Colleen Hoover, Claudine Wiley, Rae Wheaton; SECOND SOPRANO: Kathryn Stute, Nancy Mahon, LaNeta Collicott; ALTO: Betty Walter, Myrna Oster, Barbara Evans, Margaret Oster, Betty Nikiel, Barbara Neville; TENOR: Kenneth Stute, Calvin Zuege, Dale Cline; BARITONE: Dick Stasser, Paul Freehling, Dick Hoover.

HOMECOMING

[Benkelman Post]

Our Homecoming this year proved to be a real Homecoming when Haigler met and defeated Hayes Center on October 19, 1956.

It was a close hard ball game. Haigler managed to leave the field at the half leading with a score of 7 to 6. It remained there until John Corder ran back a punt for 55 yds. during the fourth quarter. Hayes Center desperately filled the air with passes. Pass defense saved the day and Haigler won with a final score of 13 to 6.

During the half Dick Bannister and Rae Wheaton were crowned Homecoming King and Queen of 1956 by last year's King, Larry Collins and Almeda Bier, in the absence of Alice Beeson, who was Homecoming Queen last year. Attendants of the King and Queen were Paul Freehling, Butch Van Horn, Nancy Mahon, and Myrna Oster.

In the evening at the annual Homecoming dance, Rae Wheaton was again honored and presented with a banner by Alice Beeson.
