SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1956, nine green freshmen entered Haigler High School. They were Don Trembly, Joyce Tucker, Gwen Dexter, Pat Wheaton, Eugene Schwartz, Duane Catlett, Gene Mahon, Colleen Hoover, and Norman Beeson.

Our teachers for the first year were Mr. Catlett, Mr. Carter, and Mr. Everett.

At the beginning of our sophomore year Joyce Tucker and Duane Catlett were not with us.

That year we sponsored an all school party at the high school.

Our teachers that year were Mr. Carter, Mrs. Daniels, Miss Laura Johnson, and Miss Ada Johnson.

When we came back to school our junior year we had to look at the same faces for classmates.

We received our classrings in November and during that month we also gave our class play entitled, "The Skeleton Walks".

On May 2, we gave a banquet for the seniors. The theme was "Candy Land". After the banquet, the prom was held in the gymnasium with music by the Wallace Howe Orchestra.

Our teachers that year were Mr. Beller, Miss Laura Johnson, and Mr. Osborne.

This year our class has neither increased nor decreased.

We received our senior pictures before Christmas and quite satisfied with them.

We are now looking forward to our "Sneak Day" and we hope that this will be one of the most enjoyable times of our high school days.

Our teachers this year are Mr. Beller, Miss Laura Johnson, Mr. Osborne, and Mrs. Beardsley.

Our Senior Class Play was April 23, 1959 in the high school gymnasium. The title was "Her Kissin' Cousin".

Baccalaureate services were held on May 10, 1959, and Commencement exercises on May 14, 1959.

Class Motto: Build for Character, Not for Fame

Class Flower: White Rose

Class Color: Navy Blue and Silver

Class Sponsor: Mr. Beller

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1959, having accredited with acknowledging our heretofore unsurpassed ignorance, by realizing nevertheless the uplifting and noble influence we have had upon the school for four years, being at this time, strange as it may seem, temporarily in our right mind, do hereby declare and publish this our last will and testament, revoking any wills made previous by us.

FIRST: We wish to establish, with any money left in our treasury, a fund to repair any objects mutilated by any one of us.

SECOND: We wish to leave tear bottles to anyone to whom our passing has brought grief.

The following are our individual bequests upon underclassmen.

I, Eugene Schwartz, wish to leave my athletic abilities to that strong young man--Allen Zuege.

I, Pat Wheaton, will my size to Ellen Van Horn and my friendly ways to Betty Schwartz.

I, Norman Beeson, will my resistance to girls to Dale Cline and Dick Hoover.

I, Gwen Dexter, do hereby bestow my ability to be late and get by with it upon Sandra Haskell.

I, Colleen Hoover, bequeath upon Beverly Snelling, my tiny feet and my mole I leave to Joyce Dexter.

I, Gene Mahon, wish to bestow upon Carol Wall, my soft voice and ability to keep my mind on my subjects.

I, Don Trembly, will my safety in driving to all underclassmen and may each do less damage than I.

In witness whereof, we hereto subscribed our names and affixed our seal this fourteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifty nine.

CLASS POEM

We the Class of '59
Have enjoyed our short stay,
Although we do not regret,
We'll soon be on our way.

Colleen is a cheerful kid
And always full of fun.
She can't seem to realize,
Her life has just begun.

Gwen is not the fickle type,
She seems so true to one,
This doesn't seem to keep her
From having lots of fun.

Norm is a good old chap
With his flashy grin,
If he isn't careful,
Some girl will fence him in.

Pat always has lots of friends
This everyone can see.
She wants to be a housewife,
And we hope that she may be.

Eugene Schwartz, a nice looking guy,
Says school is quite a bore,
He'd rather dance, or dine, or date
For thinking's such a chore.

Now comes that Mahon boy,
The tall one in our class.
Gene's main hope right now,
Is that he can pass.

Last in our poem comes Don.
He's one of the roving kind.
Someday he's bound to settle down,
When he makes up his mind.

With new hope for the future,
And memories from the past;
We seven seniors say good-by
To Haigler High at last.

"If Mother Only Knew"

Story-Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell's twentieth wedding anniversary was coming up in a few days but Mrs. Maxwell was afraid her husband had forgotten. So the Maxwell children go to work; all order flowers and sign it John Maxwell. What a time; and a riot goes on with everyone rushing flowers to the house, and all the time Mother doesn't know what's going on. Between flowers and love letters, Mother never finds out what's going on.

HOMECOMING

Haigler's Homecoming was on Friday, October 17, 1958. Haigler was host to the Benkelman Tigers. Benkelman defeated the scrappy Haigler boys 39-0.

There was a large parade before the game. The owners of business places had their cars decorated and were boasting the Eagles. There was a large attendance at the game.

At half-time the King and Queen of 1958 were crowned. Gwen Dexter was crowned the Queen and Don Trembly was crowned King. Pat Wheaton and Colleen Hoover were the Maids of Honor and Eugene Schwartz, Gene Mahon, and Norman Beeson were the King's attendants. Gwen was presented a bouquet of flowers by the boys.

Friday night, the Homecoming Dance was held at the high school gymnasium. The music was furnished by the Charles Jeffers Orchestra of Nauneta. At the start of the dance the Queen and each of her attendants received a corsage and the King and his attendants each received a boutonniere. The presentation of the King, Queen, and attendants was held at the dance. The Queen was presented with a gift by the King and likewise a gift was presented to the King by Sandra Haskell, the Pep-Club president. After the presentation, the King and Queen led everyone else in the Grand March. A large crowd attended the dance.

The Haigler Football season started out with fifteen boys who compiled a one win, six loss season. The majority of the boys were inexperienced. Seven of the fifteen boys out were freshmen. Freshmen boys played in every encounter.

Eugene Schwartz received Star of the Week from both The World Hearold and Lincoln Star for his three touchdowns against Norcator Kansas. Defensive maneuvers on the part of Sophomore, Dwight Beeson and Senior Don Trembly aided with end runs by Calvin Zuege set Eugene Schwartz up for his touchdowns. Calvin Zuege hit pay dirt first to help Haigler end a twelve game losing streak.

The prospects of the future looks bright for the Eagles with seven Freshmen who gained vital experience this year.
